Politechnika Warszawska

Dear PhD Students,

We would like to invite you to take a part in an upcoming Mini-Symposium – an event organized within under projects NAWA UKRAINE and ENHANCE2 for PhD students from Ukraine and PhD students from Warsaw University of Technology.

This is a fantastic opportunity for you to showcase your research and gain valuable insights from various disciplines. Each participant has a chance to present their research and the dissertation they have been working on, sparking discussions and broadening perspectives across fields.

By participating, you'll earn 10 hours of doctoral seminar credit for the 2023/2024 summer semester (2024L). To receive credit, we ask that you give a short presentation (10-15 minutes) and stay engaged for the full day – enjoy all presentations and contribute to the dialogue.

The event takes place on 20.09.2024, from 8:30 to 17:40. The Mini-Symposium will be held in English.

To register, please fill out the form linked below until 11.09.2024. Only your data and a topic of your abstract is required, later we will ask to send us a short presentation as a PowerPoint or PDF file.

Register form: <https://forms.office.com/e/3Jfa7rJE1r>

There is a limited number of places. The first come first principle applies. You will receive a confirmation of your participation on 12.09.2024.

In case of any questions, please contact us through e-mail: projekty.sd@pw.edu.pl
